As the President of Missionaries On The Move, I contacted Crystal because we were in need of a better website for our Nonprofit Organization. Crystal was patient with us and made the process easy. She was a great person to work with, very professional and gave her great ideas that we didn't think of. We were very satisfied with the layout, content, and overall design of our website.

I found Crystal on Yelp. I was shopping for coaches and I don't know.... I was drawn to her. She's the first one I called. After speaking to her on the phone, I felt her empathetic vibe, her professionalism and her sweet soul. I knew I couldn't go wrong. It proved to be all true!

In the beginning, she suggested that I take a personality test to determine what direction I should go in my career. A career best fit to my character and desires. She also gave me sound advice in terms of education and a polishing up for the interview process, TONS of moral support, a rewritten resume that I got tons of compliments at each interview and a killer social media profile. To top it off, a wonderful friendship as a bonus. Crystal highlighted my strengths and taught me to convey that at the interview. She reminded me that I was much more experienced and qualified than I realized. It led me to shoot for the moon into my dream job!

Immediately after working with Crystal, I gained confidence and a powerful boost of self-esteem, coupled with increased interview requests. I am so happy that I hired a coach, especially Crystal. She's extremely personable- a quality that went beyond and served me very well during the job hunting process.

I was referred to Crystal by a friend because I was seeking to transition from my position as a Federal Government Attorney to a position in Higher Education. I took advantage of her resume writing and LinkedIn Takeover services. She made my LinkedIn profile much more descriptive and I received many more connections in the area I was seeking to transition into. What helped me to secure my new role was my tenacity, confidence, and ability in clearly articulating my transferrable skills. I would recommend Crayne Career Solutions.

A personal friend invited me to a NAAIA HR Disrupt event. I was honored to meet Crystal, who was the Presenter of the event and held onto her business card. Thereafter, I contacted her on LinkedIn because I needed her services.

Before we began the process, Crystal had me take a personal assessment to determine my personality traits, skills, and suitable industries. She helped me prepare my resume, cover letter, improved my personal presence on LinkedIn and provided me with coaching tips. During our coaching conversations, I learned that presentation and experience is everything. Through her LinkedIn Takeover service, she was able to attract employers to my profile, one being my new employer. In addition to that, my new employer shared with me that my resume did a good job of highlighting lots of relatable experience for the job. I was able to secure a decent base salary and will be eligible for a raise within two months.

What also helped me to secure my new role was Crystal's dedication in helping me get out of my situation. She made me feel important and assured me that employers were looking for people with my talent.

The best part of working with Crystal is that she knows what she is doing and what employers want. I have already recommended Crystal and will keep referring people who I believe would be grateful for her services. Thank you Crystal for helping me out when I most needed the help. I said I would start a new year in a new position and you made it happened for me.

Crystal Chisolm presented her branding workshop for the National Association of Black Accountants and it was wonderful. Crystal is extremely knowledgeable about HR and gave us tons of insight as to what employers look for, some of the ways they screen candidates, and tips on how to not only stand out but get the interview. Her worksheets are very helpful and give you the rights tools to do a more introspective review of your brand. I learned a lot and I know the other attendees did as well. I would highly recommend her branding workshop for other professionals whether on the market for a new job or looking for advancement opportunities at their current one!

I have known Crystal for a relatively short time. My job search for a full-time permanent position was going nowhere, until I met Crystal through the NAAAHR organization. When I found out Crystal could work on adding life to my resume, I immediately enlisted her services to revamp my resume. I was looking to make a career change from the Insurance Industry to a Human Resources role, and Crystal was very creative in structuring my resume to appeal to employers. Crystal went the extra mile to create a professional resume for me, even crafting a layout that clearly showed my HR transitional skills while not bringing too much attention to the work gap on my resume.

Crystal was thorough, efficient, courteous, professional and helpful. As we know recruitment is not an exact science, so your resume, your first introduction to the employer, has to stand out. Crystal was able to make my resume stand out, and within approximately 3 months of using my newly revised resume, I was hired as an Operational Specialist within the Learning Center of Excellence at Realogy. I am really impressed by Crystal's friendliness, professionalism and 'can do' attitude, and would have no hesitation in recommending her to anyone and would definitely urge anyone looking for work to contact her.

Finally, just a great big THANK YOU to Crystal! Job well done! Bravo!

Crystal did the most amazing job for me when I was laid off from my job. She was able to counsel me through the ups, downs, ins, and outs of having my source of income disappear in the blink of an eye. After our first meeting, I knew I was in great hands. She recreated a functional resume that would get me more opportunities to get in the door and interview with potential employers. She set up my LinkedIn profile and helped me navigate through that platform with ease and confidence. We also had job coaching sessions that prepared me for the next steps to becoming gainfully employed. I want to thank you Crystal for helping me land a job that is not just perfect but perfect for me. I couldn't have done it without you. You've got a friend in me. God Bless you and much success to you.

Crystal provides her services to the Rutgers New Start Career Group. These are folks, like myself, out of work for a while who need help getting back into the workforce. Crystal's four week presentation on Branding, Resumes, and Cover Letters was excellent. The four weeks aspect kept me committed to attend all classes. We often don't think of a job search as marketing/branding ourselves. The interactive resume and cover letter sessions used real samples from us which allowed Crystal and the other attendees to provide comments. So, I had good feedback to better my documents. Just as the last session ended, I received a call for an interview and later was offered a job. Yay!

Crystal's guidance and expertise has been very helpful as I decide which direction I would like to go in my career. I found Crystal to be very resourceful and she designed what I consider a perfect resume and cover letter for this phase in my career. Crystal is a true professional at what she does and a wealth of information on what recruiters and employers are looking for in employees. I am so grateful to her for all of her help and support. I would recommend her to anyone looking a resume upgrade or rebranding.

As a client of Crystal, I had the opportunity to benefit from her expertise as a career coach and resume writer. My experience with Crystal was beyond outstanding! I found Crystal to be very knowledgeable as a coach. She is very encouraging, caring and offers great motivation.

Crystal also worked with me on rebranding myself as a professional. Her words of wisdom were a great resource ad have benefited me greatly the results of my resume exceeded my expectations. I noticed immediate results once I began to use my new tools provided by Crystal.
I would recommend Crystal's services to anyone who is looking to start or even refresh themselves as a professional in his or her respective field.

Thank you, Crystal!

I have been following Crystal and her business, Crayne Career Solutions, on Instagram for a while and was inspired to reach out to her because of the content that she often shared along with success stories from her former clients. In July, we began talking about my transition back into the workforce. Crystal was optimistic about my abilities and reassured me that an employer would be able to utilize my skill set...even though I had been out of work for almost 8 years! She coached me through her process, showed me how to properly brand myself to attract Human Resources positions and created a resume and cover letter for me within 3 days so that I could begin applying for jobs. But due to some family obligations, my job search came to a halt and did not pick back up until the Fall. Not once did Crystal let me fall through the cracks, she always checked in on me and my progress. She also gave me tailored job searching and interviewing skill tips. Since receiving my new resume and cover letter from Crystal and applying the tips that she gave me about updating my LinkedIn profile, I received many interview requests and most recently a job offer! She is great at what she does but also very passionate

After an almost 30 yr. career, I found myself middle-aged and jobless! I had no idea what I either wanted to do or was even qualified to do. Thankfully, I had the incredible good fortune to connect with Crystal who was supportive and genuine in understanding my predicament and what I would face in the job market. She asked intelligent and thought provoking questions that helped me to figure out what "lit me up." Crystal motivated me with practical action steps to learn how I could successfully change career paths. She created a resume that was modern and effective, a cover letter template that helped me draft letters that got me interviews, and guided me to be professional and write follow-up "thank you" letters. I strongly believe that Crystal's coaching and resume program had a huge influence on my success in being hired in a new career after working together for only a few short months! Not only am I excited about this new career, but the salary is more than double the low paying position I got on my own.

I highly recommend working with Crystal Chisholm if you are serious about getting hired!
